Routledge. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 296 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.9in. x 0.6in. Learn how to develop an effective Alzheimers ministry. The Guide to Ministering to Alzheimers Patients and Their Families examines the importance of spirituality in dealing with the everyday challenges of this mysterious disease. Not a how-to manual with step-by-step instructions or tried and true formulas, this unique book instead examines the essential elements of ministering to dementia patients based on the first-hand accounts of family members living through pain and uncertainty. The book explores the stages of Alzheimers, grief and guilt, available resources, and implications of spiritual care for patients and families. It is equally useful as a textbook for graduate and undergraduate work, a reference for study groups and seminars, and a primer for those with limited knowledge of the illness. Ministers sometimes neglect Alzheimers patients and their families because they feel they dont know what to say or do even though they want to be obedient and faithful servants in this specialized ministry. The Guide to Ministering to Alzheimers Patients and Their Families communicates the thoughts, feelings, and needs of those affected by the disease to help ministers feel more comfortable, confident, and competent as they develop a theological understanding of God, Alzheimers patients, and their role in ministry. The book also provides models for ministry; role-play scenarios; a sample text for a care facility worship service, a care facility memorial service, and a funeral service for a Christian and a non-Christian as well as a sample clergy seminar program on Alzheimers ministry. The Guide to Ministering to Alzheimers Patients and Their Families examines: common characteristics of early, mild, moderate, and severe Alzheimers general information about Alzheimers ethical decision-making support group ministry respite care religious rites faith issues heredity hospitalization of Alzheimers patients long-distance caregiving...
