Leafwood Publishers Acu Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The Early Church and Today is a fitting monument to Everett Ferguson s distinguished career. Ferguson is one of his generation s premier patristics scholars, and this book shows why-unrivalled knowledge of early Christian writings; judicious interpretation; orderly presentation. In this book Ferguson s classic essays mingle with illuminating lesser-known materials. All have Ferguson s uncommon capacity to use scholarship, with great integrity and gentleness of spirit, for the sake of Christ s church. -Alan Kreider, professor of Church History and Mission (retired), Anabaptist Mennonite Biblical Seminary, Elkhart, Indiana This is a fine collection of integrated essays produced by an internationally distinguished scholar in the field of early Christian studies, who here reveals his academic work across a period of more than fifty years. His reflections on Christian living in a post-Christian world, the books of Acts, biblical interpretation, the Restoration Movement, and religious liberty will appeal to a wide readership. All of these topics are anchored in Professor Ferguson s belief that early Christianity is relevant for every era, and in the mature conviction that all hermeneutical inquiry must refer to historical and doctrinal contexts to be authentically Christian. -Pauline Allen, professor at Australian Catholic University and University of Pretoria The academic world knows Everett Ferguson as one of the finest patristic scholars of our time. Everett s friends and community of faith know him as a deeply devoted churchman. The Early Church and Today testifies to the author s labors over many years to keep those worlds linked together. -Jeff Childers, Carmichael-Walling Professor of New Testament and Early Christianity, Graduate School of Theology, Abilene Christian University.
