(c) The repair of unserviceable instruments and property will be under the immediate direction of the property officer. (d) The post commander should not detail the property officer for other duty without permission from the Chief Signal Officer of the Army, except in case of emergency. In the absence of the post commander he would, if senior officer present, assume the duties of post commander by reason of such seniority, in addition to his duties as property officer. (e) When practicable, the post commander will detail the necessary enlisted men to carry on the work of the property depot and repair shop, and do everything that is possible to expedite the work at the depot and shop. The services of clerks, packers, and other civilian employees at general supply depots will not be utilized for post duties in any manner. 416. The Fort Wood property depot is designated to supply signal corps blank forms, and the property officer should keep on hand an ample supply by timely requisitions for printing to the signal office, Washington. Applications for blank forms sent direct to the Fort Wood depot will be filled by the property officer when the quantities appear to be reasonable. 417. Officers in charge of general supply depots will arrange for an expert inspection of all delicate apparatus received by them immediately upon its arrival and before opening and unpacking. The purpose of this inspection is to determine whether or not the...
