

Rethinking Experiences of Childhood Cancer: A Multidisciplinary Approach to Chronic Childhood Illness

By Mary Dixon-Woods, Bridget Young, David Heney

Open University Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Rethinking Experiences of Childhood Cancer: A Multidisciplinary Approach to Chronic Childhood Illness, Mary Dixon-Woods, Bridget Young, David Heney, "The experiences of the families rang true throughout. I have experienced many of these personally. It made me think differently about my personal experience as a parent of a child with cancer and my son's current social experiences." Macmillan Cancer Support This book offers a radical critique of existing psychosocial research on children's experiences of cancer and proposes an alternative view informed by recent interpretive perspectives. Exploring topics from obtaining a diagnosis of childhood cancer through to sharing decision-making and communication, it reviews a wide-ranging body of research and theory on childhood, chronic illness, and cancer. The book also examines research that has focused on how parents and other family members experience childhood illness. Written by a sociologist, a psychologist and a practising paediatric oncologist, this book is unique in its approach and provides key reading across traditional disciplinary boundaries. In particular, the book highlights the emerging contribution of interpretive work to understanding chronic childhood illness and further develops the dialogue that has only recently emerged between the sociology of illness and the sociology...
