Yes! she broke in, impatiently, but I want something quite fresh, not like Whistler, or Morris, or Tadema. It is so distinguished to express ones own personality in ones surroundings. Do you not mean other peoples personality said the Lay Figure, if you employ their ideas. Dont be flippant, she broke in. Of course another person may suggest an idea. Which any one is certain to ruin in translating it to shape, the Lay Figure added. My dear lady, anybody can have ideas; it is to carry them through that reveals the artist. Still, you might suggest something novel for my new drawing-room, she said. When I do not know its aspect, or its proportions, what furniture you are prepared to discard, or if you mean to keep the thousand and one bits of bric-a-brac from your present one. Oh! but every one is absolutely...
