LONG WALK TO PEACE (inner) How a South African Moegoe became politically aware. . . Thanks, once again, Madiba for all you have done for the always beloved country (as well as for the licence with my title) This little e-book of memories is for you and all South Africans (these are my very first writings, written in the very dark days of winter in June of 1992 in SA) A Long March to Justice: Reflections on my very privileged journey born under Apartheid I was born in 1950, two years before the National Party won the election in South Africa and imposed the harshest racial legislation the world has ever known. Here is the story of my journey and the first stirrings of my political awakening. . . Bless the angry mountains And the smiling hills Where the cool water spills To heal the earths brow Bless the children of South Africa The white children And the black children But more the black children Who lost the sea and the sand That they may not lose love For white children Whose fathers raped the land. . . . Sea and sand My love My land, God bless Africa Many sunsets Gold and crimson Have dripped on the horizon, Weeping for the dying day. Many dawns have risen In timely resurrection From their cradles of light Sunsets and dawns Dawns...
