If the lesson gives enjoyably , it becomes permanent. Particularly using computer lab is a magnificent idea.I liked it very much because it gives us opportunities for examle (sic) we could research what we need for our homeworks 'I think books are boring and have only classical opinions or informations we learnt about real life We wrote to allaround the world because we had an internet page 'Reflection is nice. This refer that our ideas are important We studied lessons visual we went to computer lab. photographs which were put by nazmi hoca were related to the essay, for example photo of queen bee was related to thesis statement. 'We shared our paragrap and essays with other classes on the net. I did not feel any writing class Enjoyable lessons lead to permanent learning.
