My Dear Primate, It is my interesting duty to lay before you for the seventh time, the annual statement of the results of the Examinations held by the appointment of the Board of Theological Studies. On this occasion twenty candidates have presented themselves for examination. The numbers are not so high as we could wish, there being but six in the first grade, four in the second, and but one in the fourth. The standard reached this year in Grade I. is a little higher, that in Grade II. much lower, that in Grade III. also much lower, and that in Grade IV. very much higher than last year. Only one, however, has failed...
