AuthorHouse, 2014. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: It all started when I was a bout fifteen years old. I was playing for the Amateur Softball Association, or Junior Olympic Softball. I was a standout pitcher, throwing the ball a bout sixty-five miles a n hour. I loved softball; it was my sport, a nd it was my passion. But something was taking over my body, my brain, a nd my soul. I wasn't in control a nymore. I used to throw no-hitters, strike batters out, a nd be proud of myself. But a switch went off in my brain. I was hearing voices; they were telling me to do certain things. I was paranoid, a nd it a ffected my pitching. My dad could no longer sit a nywhere near where I was pitching because I could see his eyeballs. Those eyeballs were following me a nd distracting me, so he had to sit behind the outfield fence. I could hear what the batters were thinking, a nd I could hear what everyone in the stands where thinking. It ruined my career. the sad part a bout it was that...
