Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Report on Introducing Pure Water: Into the City of Boston A large number of this Report was printed by order of the City Council, for gratuitous distribution only, among the citizens - none were for sale; and as frequent inquiries have been made for it, a second edition has been thought expedient. Several interesting new articles are added. At the close of the appendix, is a long and valuable memoir, on Springs, Artesian Wells, and Spouting Fountains, by M. Arago, published in the Annuaire du Bureau des Longitudes, pour 1835; but taken from the Edinburgh New Philosophical Journal, for April. It may be thought too long, perhaps, for the occasion; but it is not too long for due consideration by the inhabitants of Boston, New York, and other towns, who found any false hopes of abundant supplies of pure water from subterranean sources, without scientific inquiries into the geological structure of the earth, under and around them. Mr. Lester s account of the wells in Boston, was in the appendix, and made part of the report, but was not printed. It is now inserted in its proper place. He made great exertions to obtain correct information, by going through all the streets in succession, putting down the owner or occupant of every well, which filled more than sixty pages in a tabular form, indicating the various characters of water found in them. He was obliged to take the information, such as it was presented from the heads, or domestics, of families at home, male or female, and it is apparent he had no occasion to repeat his visits, where there was no suspicion as to...
