I love Thy kingdom, Lord, The house of Thine abode, The church the blest Redeemer saved With His own precious blood. I love Thy church, O God; Her walls before Thee stand, Dear as the apple of Thine eye, And graven on Thy hand. For her my tears shall fall; For her my prayers ascend; To her my cares and toils be given, Till tolls and cares shall end. Beyond my highest joy I prize her heavenly ways, Her sweet communion, solemn vows, Her hymns of love and praise. Sure as Thy truth shall last, To Zion shall be given The brightest glories earth can yield, And brighter bliss of heaven. Very interesting figures of speech are given in the Scriptures to set forth the Church. Jesus says: Upon this rock I will build My Church, the striking practical figure of a builder with suitable materials rearing a substantial structure upon an enduring foundation. Our Lord also...
